A Cost of Mail.

Over at Sheep ranch, California last week, a young lady attempted to take a loaded revolver out of the drawer of a sewing machine, when the weapon was discharged. The bullet struck her fairly and squarely over the heart. She fell to the floor dead, as all supposed, but at once came up smiling, and made another dash at the revolver. The steel ribs of her corset had turned aside the bullet. Their not being able to shoot themselves through the heart is probably the reason why most women suicide by taking poison. When cased in their armor they will not take a back seat for a mountain howitzer. About the only thing they fear is lightning, and that must be very forked.

A late issue of the New York Herald contained special mention of the cure of Thaddeus Davis, Esq., of the great ink firm 127 William street, New York. He was suffering from rheumatic gout, (an inherited ailment) and St. Jacobs Oil cured him in 24 hours.

EDISON'S FAILURE.

A correspondent writes to the American Gaslight Journal: My informant stated that Edison has just met with the greatest disappointment of his life, in the complete failure of his attempt to light 2500 houses with his incandescent lamps by his underground system of wires. But 50 houses could be lighted, the electricity being conveyed away, owing to imperfect insulation. As the insulation was supposed to be perfect, the conclusion is that underground conductors cannot be made to work.

A SOLID SUBSTITUTE.

Theodore Winters' name has been substituted for that of W. F. Berry for State Senator on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Winters is a solid citizen, and has an ocean of friends in this community. Perhaps his greatest fault is that he is a sterling Democrat.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

—A native convicted of terrible atrocities during the massacre in Alexandria, June 11, was executed this morning.

—The Republicans of the Thirtieth New York Congressional District have nominated John Van Voorhis.

FOREIGN TELEGRAPH.

Fanatics Sounded.

CAIRO, October 7.

While the annual truce which departed with imposing ceremonies was journeying to Suez on its way to Mecca, the canopy over the sacred car was caught and overturned by a telegraph wire, and the sacred emblem exposed to the public. The dervishes in charge were greatly excited by the accident. It is not certain but that the caravan will have to return and the ceremony be performed over again at Cairo.

A War Horror.

LONDON, September 29

A correspondent of the Cologne Gazette declares that the Egyptian war-trenches were murdered by the British in the trenches at Tel-el-Kebir after resistance ceased. A letter from a non-commissioned officer says orders were to spare none of the enemy, and to bayonet everyone of them as they would shoot soldiers if they passed them.

Another Crack.

NEW YORK, October 7.

A boy about 18 years of age called at police headquarters this morning and asked permission to carry a pistol. When asked what he wanted to carry a pistol for, he replied: "To shoot President Arthur." He was taken to the Jefferson Market court where he seemed much excited. In answer to a question from the court, he said his name was William Martin, and he lived at 117 East Eighty-Fourth street. He said Arthur used to live in the same house with his father years ago when he was a roundman; had just come from the penitentiary, where he had served a term for larceny; when he did not steal he blacked boots. He was committed for examination.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, October 7.

The White House still looks dandied and streaked, despite the scraping and painting. Visitors are indignant at the scandal to the nation of keeping up such a national disgrace.

Attorney-General Brewster is expected on Tuesday, when proceedings will be inaugurated and pushed vigorously in the star route bribery cases.

District Attorney Corkhill has finished the preliminary work of all papers that had been sent to the Department of Justice for use during the Attorney-General's absence.

A Chance for Lynching.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., October 7.

Terrific excitement exists in Christian county, where 300 armed men are searching for John Leigh, who shot Jas. Rigby. It found he was shot or hanged instantly. E. T. Leigh, father of the murderer, promised John $1,000 dollars to kill Rigby. He has been committed to jail and his life is in danger from the mob.

TO-DAY'S NEWS

Press Dispatches to EVENING GAZETTE.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

Frank James, the Outlaw, in Voluntary Captivity.
KANSAS CITY, October 6.

A Western Associated Press representative had an interview with Frank James this morning as he was being transferred by the train from Independence to Kansas City. On board the train were Prosecuting-Attorney Wallace, Marshal Murphy, Sheriff Timberlake and a number of reporters. Along the route James was frequently recognized by old Confederates of his guerrilla days. He is five feet nine inches in height, spare but sinewy-built, with light blue eyes, small blonde mustache, and hair a shade darker, a sallow complexion, quiet manner and ordinary language. His dress is unobtrusive. He said that though the Governor had not promised immunity, he had at last nerved himself to a long-contemplated act and surrendered himself. He believes, if tried on any single charge alone, he will not be convicted, and hopes if convicted the Governor will interfere. He desires to lead a quiet life with his family, as he did from April, 1877, to April, 1881, upon a rented farm near Nashville, Tenn. He refuses to state where he has been since April, 1881, but said he read in the New York Herald the news of the shooting of Jesse the day after it occurred. He has been east of the Alleghenies and in Kentucky the past year. He says he has been much maligned. He never wrote a letter threatening to avenge Jesse's death. He remarked of the country the train was passing through that it was mighty good bushwhacking timber, and he knew every foot of it. He said he had come to Missouri on September 23, with the purpose of giving himself up. Previous to that time he said he had not been in the State for a year. He said: "I came to Missouri to try to regain a home and a standing among my people. I have been hunted like a wild animal from one State to another. I have known no home. I have slept in all sorts of places; here to-day, there to-morrow. I have been charged with nearly every great crime committed in either Wisconsin or her neighboring States. I have been taught to suspect my dearest and nearest friends of the basest treachery, and where was the end to be? I am heartily tired of this life of night riding and day hiding, of constant listening for foot-falls, crackling twigs, rustling leaves and creaking doors. Tired of seeing Judas on the face of every friend, and goodness knows I have none to spare. I am tired of the knife, the revolver and the cartridge belt, tired of the hoods and horrors with which popular belief has equipped me, and I want to see if there ain't some way out of it. I think I can give the State a substantial return for what I ask, and I think the dignity of the law will not suffer if I shall prove myself worthy of mercy."

With all the sentiment which necessarily surrounds a history so mysterious and an event so dramatic, there rests a conviction among citizens generally that the law should take its impartial course and justice be meted as seems best. Some feeling is expressed. However, it has nothing of open violence, and there is no possible danger of any attempt in that direction.

A Murderer's Opinion.

NEW YORK, October 7.

Charles and Bob Ford, the slayers of Jesse James, having finished an engagement at the Bowery Museum, leave to-night for Kansas City to stand trial for participating in the murder of Wood Hite, one of the James gang who lost his life mysteriously at the house of the Ford's father early last winter. In a conversation to-night Bob Ford said, "Well, I see Frank James has come in and surrendered. Now, I am anxious to see what Governor Crittenden will do. He promised me as much as that he would never pardon Frank James. If he does, then I think they had better look Frank or me up, for the world is not big enough for two of us. If we are both at large one of us must surely be killed. Frank will never give up till he kills me, and I am sure I don't propose to die at his hands, if I stand any chance to get the first shot. His desire to reform is all stuff. He simply wants to get in, because he is afraid to stay out, or perhaps he thinks it the easiest way to get at me. He's a nice penitent, and it would be a nice state of affairs to turn him loose to go gunning after me." The young man is evidently much agitated at the prospect.

Coal in Illinois.

CHICAGO, October 7.

The forthcoming report of the State Bureau of Labor will show that Illinois is second only to Pennsylvania in production of coal, and that the output increased from six million tons in 1880 to nine million this year.

Solid Voters.

RALEIGH, October 7.

The Republicans of Pimlico county adopted the following: "Whereas, Report being industriously circulated that we Republicans would not vote for Captain Jas. S. Lane for the Legislature; and whereas, said Jas. S. Lane has publicly solicited our support and proclaimed himself in opposition to Bourbon Democracy; and whereas, all little Democrats have pronounced him radical; Resolved, That we will vote for Jim Lane, be he spirit of hell or goblin damned; brings he with him from heaven or blasts from hell. It comes in questionable shape, but we will vote for him as against Bourbon Democracy."

LIGNITE AND GLASS.

A chance for Reno Capitalists to Become Millionaires.
There are immense seams of lignite in the vicinity of Pyramid Lake. Samples have been brought to the GAZETTE office by parties who say there is an endless quantity of it at hand, and it can be quarried at small expense. If this be so, there is "a chance to make some money." In its natural state lignite is tolerably good for steam fuel, but makes much smoke and ash, and throws out disagreeable fumes. These objections got rid of, the material will be valuable. The officers of the Northern Pacific are vigorously experimenting on fuel on different portions of the line, under charge of G. W. Cushing, Superintendent of motive power. Attention has been specially directed to a new process of pulverized lignite, mixed with soluble glass. The process has been in use in Wales since 1873. The material is compressed under a pressure of one ton to the square inch. It is formed into blocks of great density, resisting the action of water. They do not fall to pieces in the fire, nor clinker and increase the ash. It is claimed that the fuel has a greater evaporative power than an equal amount of coal. The density is greater than that of coal. The cost of the preparation is fifty cents per ton. The Northern Pacific people are corresponding with the inventor, W. H. Cory of Cardiff, Wales, who is now in the United States. It is his intention to visit Nevada and experiment on the line of the road. The company are testing other processes to utilize lignite, and are sanguine of success. Prof. Pumpelly, the scientist of the company, is experimenting in the same direction, and thus far with satisfactory results, though not quite prepared to make a report.

The Pavilion.
On the lower floor of the Pavilion Knowles & Bainbridge make a good display of tinware, porcelain goods, etc.

Manning & Berry make a good exhibit of stoves and ranges of all kinds. The Judson Manufacturing Company of Oakland have a Victor mower on exhibition. The agents claim that it has advantages over mowers of any other manufacturers, which makes it invaluable. One advantage is that it cleans direct from the shoe by means of a compound lever, thus saving much power. Another advantage it has over other similar machines is that there is no joint at the end of the knife, and the pitman is always in direct line with the knife. The cutter can be adjusted to any elevation required without stopping the knives. It will well repay the farmers to examine the machine while they have an opportunity. The agent is at the Pavilion and will take pleasure in showing it.

The display of fruits is the best ever made in this State, and Washoe county exhibits apples, grapes, pears and fruits and vegetables of all kinds that are certainly meritorious. The Honey Lake fruits on exhibition show that that valley is entitled to a place in the front rank of fruit-growing counties of California.

A Voice from Lincoln.

The Pioche Record of last Saturday says: As the Hon. George W. Cassidy will arrive in Pioche to-day, and as he claims to be unaware of the fact that Nevada has any rivers, we suggest to his Democratic friends that as seeing is believing, they convince Mr. Cassidy of his error by taking him down and exhibiting to him the Rio Colorado, a large and great river, and the only water outlet to the sea of the inter-mountain country, and as feeling is the naked truth, they duck him into it several times. This would convince him that Nevada has got a river, and a large one too.

The Pavilion.

The Pavilion was crowded with people last night, and everyone seemed well pleased with the display. It was very uncomfortable moving around on account of the jam. Mrs. Forster's display of millinery is very much admired. She brought over some goods from Carson, but most came from the East. The embroidery and fancy work are much the best ever seen here. Mrs. Gen. Clarke of Carson has some very fine things, among them a buggy robe and an embroidered dress that stop all passers by.

To-Day's Races.

The first race to-day was a dash of a mile and an eighth between Joe Howell and Frank Rhodes. Time: 2:59 1/4. In the second race Slim Jim, Roanoke, Pilot, Colonel, started. Slim Jim was favorite two to one. Colonel won the first heat in 2:41, Slim Jim second, Roanoke third. Colonel won the second heat—2:41 1/2. Colonel won the third heat in 2:37 1/2.

Oysters at the Palace.
A lot of fresh eastern oysters at the Palace restaurant now. Go and fill yourself up with the delicious bivalve. Get your tank full and be happy. A large lot came by express this morning, and there is plenty for everybody.

THE SPEECHES.

A FINE AUDIENCE LISTENS TO THE TRUTH.

The Republicans of Reno Turn Out En Masse.

Out of a host of attractions that filled the town last night quite a good sized audience assembled at the Nevada Theater, where Hon. C. C. Powning and Hon. W. W. Bishop were announced to speak. Minute guns were fired on the Plaza, several bonfires blazed and the Reno band added its persuasive notes to the general invitation. Judge Leonard, Mr. Preble, Mr. Young, Controller Hallock, C. F. Bicknell, J. C. Harlow and Hon. C. C. Stevenson occupied seats on the stand. Dr. Waggoner called upon W. M. Boardman to act as Chairman. Mr. Boardman talked about 15 minutes of the candidates, endorsing them as good, true men, worthy of any office they were asked to fill. The candidate for Congress, Mr. Powning, was received by his fellow townsmen with applause. He reviewed the platform and referred particularly to the Chinese plank and challenged anyone to show where any Democrat had made an official which had made any impression, while such men as Jones, Woodburn, Sargent and Miller had spent years in the work, and a Republican President had signed the bill. He said that the elections in Oregon, Maine and Vermont proved that the principles for which Garfield and Lincoln had been martyred were still dear to the nation. To the Republican party is due the laws we now have on silver, and John P. Jones was the father of the policy. He referred to

THE VAST DIVIDEND

Made to the States in the River and Harbor bill, and showed what an immense benefit forty or fifty thousand dollars spent on the Truckee, Carson, Humboldt or Walker rivers would have been to this State. It would have built reservoirs in the mountains and made the supply sufficient for all the land in reach, much of which has as good soil as any lying out of doors. He pledged himself to support the Reagan bill or any similar measure. His greatest efforts, however, would be directed to getting the donation by the general Government to the State of Nevada of every acre of public land in her borders to be used by her for developing her resources, bringing water and land together by building canals, digging artesian wells, etc. The idea had come to him some years ago while considering an idea of B. F. Lee's favoring an extensive system of irrigation by the State bringing in water through long canals that were not within the power of private means to build. The idea of using all the public lands in the State for such purposes would not strike Congress very unfavorably, as very little revenue is now or ever will be derived from it, while if improved it would pay the Government well in internal revenue receipts alone. Everyone here can see what a splendid thing it would be if the ditch talked of here so long, running from Essex across the flank of Peavine mountain into Spanish and Warm Spring valleys, could be built. In conclusion the speaker

REVIEWED THE STATE TICKET

And spoke a favorable word for all the candidates. He said Mr. Strother was a gentleman and would make it a matter of personal pride to administer the government well. Major Laughton is well qualified for the delicate duties of presiding over the Senate. He is a good parliamentarian and a man of quick perception and honest impulses. Judge Leonard has distinguished himself for his learning and research and is a jurist of experience and purity. Nevada never had so able, honest and efficient a Controller as J. F. Hallock. George Tuffy has the Democratic candidate on the run. His opponent, G. H. Shepherd, a most worthy and sensible gentleman, has withdrawn, and the best thing the Democrats can do is to put George on their ticket and elect him unanimously. J. M. Dornier is running against a very fine gentleman for Secretary of State, J. W. Richards is a good man and in the Legislature was always a good friend to Reno, but he reminded the people here that Mr. Dornier had also been a servicable friend to Washoe, and had shown it only a few months ago by casting the vote in the State Central Committee which gave Reno the Republican State Convention. W. H. Davenport, the candidate for Attorney-General, is a good man. His opponent, Merrill, worked against Washoe having the asylum, and opposed the bill bringing it to the State at all, and when the Democrats ask any one to scratch Davenport and vote for Merrill, he asked them not to do it. No higher compliment could he paid to this county than the nomination of C. S. Preble for Surveyor-General. His election will be of great service to Washoe county, for his is a very important office to the farmers. He ought to have as large a majority in the county as any candidate on the ticket. C. S. Young has been a teacher for many years, and is the man in all the State for Superintendent of Public Instruction. J. C. Harlow is a good printer and will run the office as cheaply and honestly as any man can. He has been a member of the Assembly, and always gave his vote for anything that Washoe county needed. His opponent, Powning said, he was not acquainted with, but he is a brother of the Democrat whose paper works against Washoe all the time—the Virginia Evening Chronicle. Last, but not least, is C. F. Bicknell, the unanimous choice of the bar of Nevada for Clerk of the Supreme Court. He closed with an exhortation to Republicans to vote for their ticket. Mr. Young was introduced, but said he would make a talk later in the season and give his ideas of some important changes in the State school system.

W. W. BISHOP

was introduced, and said that he came to Reno sixteen years ago this month and spoke from a pile of lumber near the river, when the only marks of a town were some stakes driven by the railroad company to show where the town lots were. He was working then for Governor Blaisdell's re-election, and told the people that he believed it was for their interest to elect the Republican ticket. He said they thought their principles would last. Since then no man can point to a right of the people that had been lost by them. Since then no effort had been made by any Democrat to secede. They found seceding was not a success in this climate. They had quit seceding and gone to running for office. He said he saw Democrats in the house, and he was glad to talk to them. They like to hear the truth, but never believe it. He said he would not abuse them; in fact he could not abuse them; for the truth is not abuse, and God almighty never put brains enough in a human head to tell half the frozen truth that hung around that party. No Democrat ever put together principles to make a bill for the rights of man. The Democrats claimed they were so honest and Tilden so good. They wanted eight to seven, but got seven to eight. The electoral commission was their scheme, but they lost their man because Logan tempted David Davis off the Supreme Bench with a seat in the Senate. So a Republican was put in his place and Hayes got the seat. It doesn't make any difference whether he was elected or not. They claimed that Tilden was so honest and that he was cheated, but instead of putting him up again they put up Hancock, who had whipped them a good many times. Since 1860 the Democrats had done nothing for the country. They were opposed to internal improvements and had taken no hand in

THE WONDERFUL DEVELOPMENTS

Of the last 20 years. A number of people disturbed the meeting at this point by going out, and Mr. Bishop said that all Democrats are supposed to be in bed at 9 o'clock, so the audience must excuse them. No one could tell what the Democratic party has done that is good, but all know what it has done that was bad. It tried to secede and cost 3,000,000,000 of money and half a million of lives. The poorest Republican is better entitled to a vote than the best Democrat that ever lived. The Republican party found secession almost accomplished, with foreign powers ready to recognize the confederacy, the treasury empty and the money squandered by Buchanan's administration (and no Democrat denies it now), and with no credit Europeans believed a Republic could not live. They thought we could whip an outside foe, but could not put down a rebellion at home. But the Republican genius was equal to the occasion. Greenbacks were issued to carry on the government and pay the war expenses until business could be resumed, agriculture start up and manufactures again create wealth to support a State. To-day the debt is not a burden. The interest is low and the people do not find fault. Had the Democrats succeeded, instead of the stars all being fixed and the Union complete we would be severed and

THE PACIFIC STATES

might be a republic by itself, subject to the caprice of the countries of the old world. There is danger in Democratic rule. Democratic Legislatures have not made laws good for the people, and cities ruled by them are not well formed. New York is a good example. Go to Texas and it disgraces itself. It was given the public lands when it was admitted, on condition that it pay its war debt made in securing its independence from Mexico. After the war it had four million dollars in its school fund, and it repealed all laws relating to public schools and turned the money over to be plundered by the Legislature. Charges are only made against two men on the Republican ticket. The Democrats say Powning is young and worked before he was of age and that Laughton plays the fiddle. The other young men on the ticket had committed crimes, but the Democrats did not know it. He reviewed the two platforms, and pointed out that the Republicans pledge themselves against sectarian schools, while the Democrats are Democrats, and if you find a man half drunk cursing monopolies and the Republican party and for breaking the Constitution, and show him a book asking him to read the point violated, he can't read a word of it. Comparing the census reports on education, he showed the difference between Republican and Democratic States. In Nevada only six per cent. are unable to read. In Arkansas it is 40 per cent.; in Massachusetts seven per cent.; in Louisiana, 56 per cent. The Republican party was organized by the proudest thinkers the world ever saw, and is to-day the party of progress and enlightenment. He said Washoe Republicans had not been doing right. They had been fighting since the convention, and had let the sack come in and smother them. Each man says he did not vote for Fair, but some did and for causes not honest. He exhorted Republicans to be either honest or else go to the Democrat. One traitor is worse than 40 deserters. He asked them to consider that the Congressional vote was very important and it was necessary that all should vote for Powning. He said the Republicans ought to be in power for 100 years, and asked Reno to redeem herself. It is too nice a town to be under a cloud. Too many nice people, too handsome ladies and charming children, to have the reputation of selling elections.

To-Morrow's Races.

The lessees of the bar privilege have leased the track for to-morrow and will hang up $325 for special races made up. The first race will be trotting, two miles—and repeat, between Pilot, Carlisle and Alonzo Haywood for a purse of $100. The second will be trotting, best three in five, mile heats; purse $100. Wm. Tell, Dutchman and Roanoke to start. The third race will be one mile and repeat, running, with the following starters: Snuff Box, Overland Pat and Earnest, for a purse of $100. The fourth and last race is a single dash of a mile for a purse of $25 between Katie Keys and Ballot Box, Jr. Fifty cents will admit one person to the Park and grand stand. The Agricultural Society have nothing whatever to do with it, therefore life membership tickets will not be recognized. The programme is a good one and will be interesting. The races will be conducted on the square.

Church Notices.

A Reformed Democrat.

Last night, after the Republican meeting at the theater had been dismissed, a squad of Democrats collected on the Palace corner and were discussing the political situation, the drift of the remarks being in favor of the candidate who spent the most money for liquor. While settling national affairs in an off-hand manner, a new-comer put in the remark, "I'm converted. No more Democracy for me. I've been a Democrat all my life. To night I heard more sense than I ever heard before at a public meeting. I'm going for the Republican ticket."

THE GREAT SUCCESS.

"THE TAMPICO."

Pat. July 22, 1873; Aug. 3, '78; Aug. 3, '80; Jan. 3, '82; April 4, '82.

THE TAMPICO CORSET is made with the Tampico Fibre, in substitution of the old fashioned Rigid and Breakable Bones. The Tampico Stay will not be affected by heat, cold or perspiration, and while it affords a more comfortable support than any other, it cannot be broken, however severe a test it may be exposed to in wear. It is so pliable that it conforms easily to the body in every position, and affords a most comfortable support to the wearer. It will be refreshing to ladies to find in "The Tampico" a corset that will never break. As an evidence of its intrinsic merits, A REWARD OF TWENTY DOLLARS is offered to the wearer of every Tampico Corset in which any of the Tampico stays break. It has the valuable patent attachment known as the triple back which affords a complete protection to the spinal column (the most vital part of the body), thereby preventing back-ache, spinal irritation and allied diseases to which ladies become subject from exposure, by leaving an open space at the back, as they invariably do, in lacing the ordinary corset. "The triple back" supplies a covering for the open space, and thereby protects the spine from cold, prevents wear of the undergarments by friction of laces, and gives a smoothness of fit to the back of the dress, making it a most valuable and necessary feature to all corsets.

Beware of a variety of imitations of the "Tampico" made with cord, round reed and other inferior materials.
